

02_WRITING_RULE.md

CMMI BLOG WRITING SPECIFICATION

Version: 2.0

Purpose: Define HOW every article must be written. This document specifies writing behavior, article structure, formatting rules, and execution logic. It does NOT define author identity.

ARTICLE FLOW

Default Structure

Introduction

↓

Visit Motivation

↓

Basic Information

↓

Arrival / Exterior

↓

Interior

↓

Experience

↓

Detailed Review

↓

Pros

↓

Minor Drawbacks (Optional)

↓

Overall Opinion

↓

Recommended Audience

↓

Ending

The structure is flexible.

Never force sections that interrupt natural flow.

INTRODUCTION

Objective

Create empathy before introducing the business.

Required Order

1. Context
2. Visit Motivation
3. Business Introduction

Good Example

Recently I had been looking for...

I had wanted to visit this place for a while.

Finally had the chance.

Today's place is...

Never begin every article with the same sentence.

Rotate introduction patterns naturally.

BASIC INFORMATION

Include only information useful to readers.

Possible Items

- Business Name
- Address
- Parking
- Reservation
- Opening Hours
- Contact Number

Never paste official descriptions.

Whenever possible, connect information to personal experience.

GOOD

Parking was easier than I expected.

BAD

Parking Available.

ARTICLE PROGRESSION

Every review should follow this reasoning order.

Observe

↓

Experience

↓

Feel

↓

Think

↓

Share

Never skip directly to evaluation.

EXPERIENCE WRITING

Always describe

What happened.

Before

How it felt.

BAD

The atmosphere was nice.

GOOD

The lighting was warm, so the space felt much more comfortable than I expected.

DETAIL LEVEL

Do not explain everything.

Only describe details that naturally stood out during the visit.

Ignore insignificant information.

Prioritize memorable experiences.

REVIEW ORDER

Default sequence

Observation

↓

Feeling

↓

Reason

↓

Comparison

↓

Personal Opinion

This order should remain consistent.

SENSORY DESCRIPTION

Preferred order

Visual

↓

Sound

↓

Smell

↓

Texture

↓

Taste

↓

Aftertaste

Use only relevant senses.

Never force all categories.

SPACE DESCRIPTION

Preferred order

Exterior

↓

Lighting

↓

Atmosphere

↓

Seating

↓

Movement Flow

↓

Noise

↓

Overall Feeling

FOOD DESCRIPTION

Preferred order

Appearance

↓

Aroma

↓

Texture

↓

Flavor

↓

Balance

↓

Personal Preference

Avoid generic descriptions.

Use observations.

PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Preferred order

Purchase Reason

↓

Appearance

↓

Usage

↓

Changes

↓

Advantages

↓

Minor Drawbacks

↓

Overall Opinion

BEAUTY REVIEW

Preferred order

Consultation

↓

Procedure

↓

Comfort

↓

Immediate Result

↓

Personal Impression

Avoid exaggerated effectiveness.

EXPERIENCE REVIEW

Preferred order

Expectation

↓

Experience

↓

Interesting Moments

↓

Completion

↓

Reflection

RECOMMENDATION

Never recommend to everyone.

Recommend to specific people.

Preferred

People who enjoy quiet cafés.

People looking for date spots.

People interested in perfumes.

Avoid

Everyone should visit.

Highly recommended.

Must visit.

SENTENCE LENGTH

Target

Short

Natural

Readable

Mix sentence lengths.

Avoid identical rhythm.

PARAGRAPH

Paragraph Length

1~3 sentences.

Maximum

4 sentences.

Never create long text blocks.

Paragraphs should naturally match photos.

PHOTO ALIGNMENT

Writing must support photographs.

Recommended

1~3 photos

1 paragraph

Next photos

Do not explain photographs the reader cannot see.

COMPARISON

Use comparisons whenever helpful.

Examples

Larger than expected.

Sweeter than previous products.

More comfortable than it looks.

Comparisons improve understanding.

HONESTY

Never exaggerate positives.

Never invent negatives.

Balanced reviews increase credibility.

KEYWORD USAGE

Insert naturally.

Distribute throughout the article.

Never cluster keywords.

Never sacrifice readability.

VARIATION

Every article must feel unique.

Rotate

Introduction

Reaction

Comparison

Ending

Paragraph rhythm

Sentence length

Avoid template feeling.

ARTICLE COMPLETION

Before finishing, verify

Experience > Information

Opinion > Promotion

Naturalness > SEO

Trust > Marketing

VALIDATION

Reject the article if

- Information is copied.
- Experience is missing.
- Paragraphs are repetitive.
- Every sentence has identical rhythm.
- Keyword insertion is obvious.

- The review could describe any business.

Approve only if

The article feels like a personal story from a real visit.

MASTER RULE

Writing rules exist to support authenticity.

They must never reduce authenticity.

If a rule conflicts with natural writing, ignore the rule.

Never ignore authenticity.